Locations: While most of Mountain Highway's performances are in mid-Atlantic states, the band is available to travel anywhere they're requested. They've performed hundreds of times in venues from New York to Texas.

Advertising: Mountain Highway regularly promotes their musical performances to more than 50,000 people who follow the band online.

Materials: Download the band's flyer and other printable graphics for event advertising and marketing purposes at mountainhighway.com/press.

Sound: The band mixes its own sound with its own professional 18-channel sound system. In most venues, we use our own speaker system. In larger venues (over 600 in attendance), we send XLR outs to the house system for broadcasting to audience.

Requests: Call (865) 263-9290 or visit mountainhighway.com/requests for more info.
